Teesside University

Inspiring success

Black History MONTH

Teesside University, working with Tees Valley Arts and Platforma (the national refugee arts network) are delighted to bring you a night of great music to celebrate Black History Month, with a line up of fantastic world musicians.

Wednesday 29 October
8pm - midnight

The Hub, Student's Union, Teesside University
Free to attend – all welcome, just turn up on the night

Featuring the legendary Kanda Bongo Man, reggae maestro Dennis Bovell, Sudanese songbird Shurooq Abu Alnas and the NE's own Crossings Band.

> Don't forget your dancing shoes, you'll need them!

For more information visit: http://www.tees.ac.uk/sections/whats_on/events_details.cfm?event_id=6650

Thanks to Northern Rock Foundation

northern rock foundation

platforma
Arts + Refugees Network

tva
tees valley arts